If he would make his record true:
To think without confusion clearly,
To love his fellow man sincerely,
To act from honest motives purely,
To trust in heaven and God securely."

—Van Dyke

Senior Class

As we sift the four years of college life and separate the gold from the dross, we find left friendships, love of the beautiful, a will o' the wisp called culture, a knowledge that will enable us to meet the demands of the day, and a faith which makes us desire to live according to the highest standards which we are able to visualize.

Now, wistful, we go to take a silent farewell of the campus, of the spots we have loved best at S. T. C.—the colonnade with its Jeanne D'Arc, the tall white columns, the clinging ivy, the sun dials. And filled with love and reverence, we whisper a vow:

"All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother, to thee
Thy daughters true, faithful, and loyal will be."

As Juniors, we break step to ponder over the traditions of our college—traditions that have twined and intertwined themselves about our hearts. We feel their twist, their pull—their force that makes us know that they will ever bind us. From these traditions we catch and hold before us the challenge which Jean d'Arc has left us. In the spirit of old, with banners, red and white, or green and white, we blazon to the world our Thanksgiving battles and triumphs. Again, the traditions of our college lay hold of our hearts as we see our capped and gowned Seniors take their places in chapel. Thus silently the threads of tradition interlace themselves with our deepest emotions, bringing to us old and hazily patterned thoughts as we hang the greens at Yuletide. Then Founder's Day, the most revered of all traditions, comes with its cords of rope-like strength, binding us to the past and pointing us hopefully to the future.

So closely have these threads of time-honored custom bound our hearts that they have made of us a cable of love, strength and reverence,—a cable that we could not—would not—break.

Loves for Beethoven and Irving Berlin;
Admiration for the more learned,
Likes proudly hidden by nonchalance,
Ignorance hidden with a lift of the chin—
Mental confusions in a world too full to be well ordered!

A little awed by the greatness of it all, a little amazed at the strangeness of it all, a trifle homesick, lonely, and discouraged! Then, suddenly we are inspired by the hope of it, the fun of it, the laughter, the excitement, and the possibilities of it.

At last the spirit grips us, and we take hold, eager to shape our destinies, to learn to play, to acquire knowledge, and to live.

O college, O comrade,
"Laugh thy girlish laughter"
That comes from athletes strong:
Feel that deep emotion
From out the Choir's song:
Dance in pure enjoyment
And thrill with Cotillions all.
But step without a sound
D-o-w-n the Council Hall.
Write a line, wise and clever,
For VIRGINIAN and Rotunda.

Thus,
On, and on, and on we go
Filled with life and service.
What joy—What delight!
O comrade, O college, ever serve
And "Laugh thy golden laughter."

VOLUME XXXII

Gayety and fun, tea-drinking and dancing! The thrill of belonging to a group we love, of having sisters who will love and stand by us always! Memories of long talks in the snugness of a chapter room, of thrilling experiences shared together, of autumn walks, of spring frolics, and of borrowed finery!

These and many other more poignant memories flash upon that inward eye as we recall our days at S. T. C.

Three cheers for our clubs! What dash and sparkle they add to our college life! What excitement reigns here when bids are issued, for not a single girl is overlooked!

And after that, what? A girl may whirl dizzily to haunting music; she may startle her fellows with her gay or moody songs; she may charm with the tone of violin, cello, or piano; she may argue with Hampden-Sydney, or Randolph-Macon, or be the stage star of her own dreams; yes, she may even speak in foreign tongues!

And, oh, those cheers for the girl who finds herself the light of the campus, the idol of the athletic field!

But our clubs add more than mere dash and sparkle. They give us lasting friendships and help us find true college comrades.

So, again three cheers for our clubs!

THE CAMPUS MIRROR

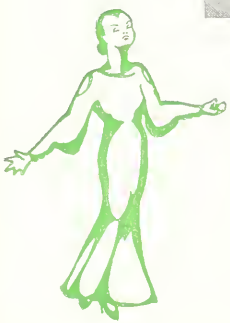
COMMENCEMENT 1932

Just before the final commencement procession begins, one pauses to catch a glimpse of the faculty in their academic robes.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

As the "little sisters" line up with their "big sisters" for the last time, the seniors solemnly make ready to receive their diplomas.

MINI GOLF



The 1932 Circus

November 5 was a gala day at S. T. C., for the circus had come to town! The streets of Farmville were cleared for the parade. And soon long-coated elephants trudged wearily along; ferocious lions roared in their cages; and Little Mickey Mouse, reared back in his cart, was followed by a float filled with old-fashioned athletes, which, in turn, was trailed by a car literally loaded with gum-shoes. Expert bicycle riders and western cowboys attracted much attention as they dashed down the street. Following close in their wake was the queen's wagon elaborately decorated, but manned only by a pink ruffled dress stuffed into a shapely form with only a question mark for a head. It was well known now that the mysterious queen would not make herself known till the night performance.

The gym was now a big circus tent. Here promptly on the stroke of eight, as Mary Shelton, the ringmaster, cracked her whip, the show began.

Each organization in school competed in the ring performances for the prizes. Mickey Mouse (Dot Waynick) and his orchestra, featuring Betty Boop (Margaret Gilmer) started the show off with plenty of pep. Then there was the mar-vel-ous magician who awed the audience by producing a "real live S. T. C. rat." Margaret Parker, the stunning lion tamer, and four ferocious lions bewitched the judges into presenting the Juniors with the first prize. Soon, in romped the Music Club as brave cowboys on bucking broncos, stealing the second prize. Now came the Seniors! Very gruesome were these shining black cannibals as they put Old Man Depression into the caldron and boiled him till naught was left but bones. And after this, nothing was left for the Seniors but honorable mention!

By popular vote the "Who's Who" of the circus were as follows: Prettiest, Mary Shelton; cutest, Kathryn Royster; funniest, Dot Davis; personality plus, Margaret Gathright; most babyish, Lucy Anderson; fattest, Ruth Jordan; and best-all-round, Jane Royall.

But the climax of the whole circus came when the pink ruffled dress reappeared stuffed this time with Alice Moore, the real circus queen!

After the presentation of the queen, the ring was cleared to give the side shows full sway. Thanks to them, the coffers of the campus organizations jingled with coins till Old Man Circus waved a farewell and shuffled off to his tent to make plans for 1933.

BACK TO SCHOOL! SEPTEMBER 1932

Those first, laughing, care-free days when friendships are a trifle dearer and laughter a bit merrier!

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES!

Friendly rivalry, wild dashing, and then white and green and red and white banners whipping in November winds!

V. I. P. A.

On October 21-22, the annual meeting of "The Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association," with Doreen Smith of S. T. C. as president, was held in this college with Hampden-Sydney and S. T. C. as sponsors. The main business of the convention was to try to solve some of the problems confronting college publications.

On the evening of the twenty-first, business was suspended long enough for the members to enjoy the banquet and the informal dance given in the Recreation Hall at S. T. C.

After the banquet, Dr. Freeman H. Hart, professor of Political Science at Hampden-Sydney College, presented trophies to the colleges having publications of outstanding merit.

Beverly Britton, of University of Richmond, was elected president for the following year.

"The Ivory Door," by A. A. Milne, featuring the chief dramatic talent of S. T. C., was presented in the college auditorium, April 15, 1932, the leads being played by Nancy Burgwyn and Mary Shelton.

THE WIENER SAEGNERKNABEN

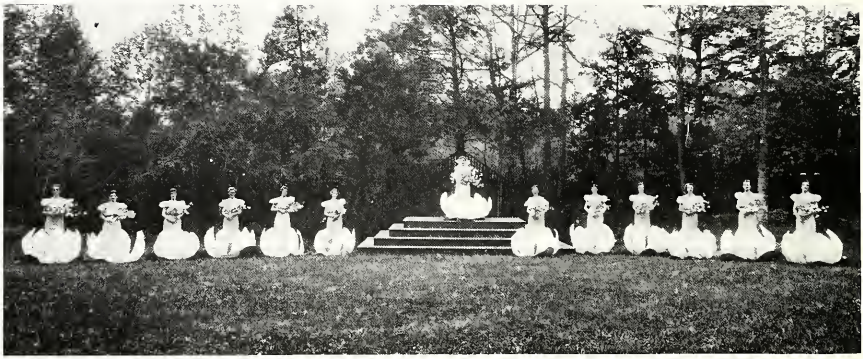
(The Singing Boys of Vienna, Austria)

Founded By Imperial Decree in 1498

These boys from Vienna appeared in the S. T. C. auditorium in the fall of 1932; their concert was the chief musical event of the year.

"Bird-throated and talented, they are the living symbol of the best that old Austria has produced in art and scholarship."

The gay Fall Cotillion was ushered in upon the strains of music furnished by Weede Meyers and his Virginia Beach Orchestra.



May Day-1932

A May Day celebration of unusual grace and charm was held on May 7 at Longwood. There in the green amphitheater the Indian legend, "The Star Flower," was artistically portrayed by three hundred and fifty S. T. C. girls. The several thousand spectators who lined the sides of the amphitheater marveled at the loveliness of the setting and at the beauty and lithe grace of the Indian braves and maids.

The May Queen, Medora Ford, the dark Indian-like beauty from Lexington, Virginia, was attended by her maid-of-honor, Jenilee Knight, and her court train which was composed of the following: Grace Virginia Woodhouse, Betty Watts, Jane Royall, Doris Ewers, Virginia Fox, Margaret Gathright, Virginia Hamilton, Nancy Harrison, Celia Jones, Helen Cover, Ruth Floyd, and Lindsay White.

The out-of-doors calls! Laughter, sunshine, and play urge us to leave our cares and join the fun, to run, to jump, to dribble, to drive, to pace the cinder path!

The echo of gay voices lures us to the athletic field where sportsman-like we win or lose. There with brawn and brain, we build for ourselves a fortress of strength that we may play the game fair and square.

ONWARD FARMVILLE

Onward Farmville, onward Farmville,
Plunge right into the fray.
Hit the line every time,
Victory we'll surely win today, rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!
Show your pep, girls, keep your "rep," girls,
One goal will make them yield.
We'll keep old S. T. C. on top,
Back them right down the field.
All along the line—(Repeat.)

—Virginia Potts, '26

ROOTING FOR FARMVILLE

Yes, we're rooting for old Farmville,
Yes, we are, rah! rah!
We've the team and the backing
That is known afar,
Let's go, team.
Watch our team work while we're winning,
That's how Farmville wins her fame.
In fairness and in backing
You know we're never lacking,
So ray! ray! for S. T. C.
So ray! ray! rah! rah!!
For Farmville we are rooting
'Cause we know she's out to win.

REALIZING everyone's love of Beauty, "THE VIRGINIAN" presents here the 1933 Beauties of STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE as selected by RUSSELL PATTERSON, the Art Editor of College Humor Magazine

Dear Miss Rawles,

I hate to judge beautiful girls from photographs as color and personality are so important, but unfortunately I am too far away from Virginia to meet the young ladies personally. So, if by chance, some of them did not photograph as well as usual on that particular day, ask the ones after number seven to forgive me if I didn't do right by them.

I feel very complimented that I have been asked to select the photographs for the feature section of the Virginian.

Sincerely yours,

Russell Patterson.

Our Theme

It has been our purpose in this issue of THE VIRGINIAN to portray college life at S. T. C. just as we have lived it from day to day. We have attempted to picture its many phases—the gay, the solemn, the intellectual, and the cultural. And so we hope that when you open your annual you will say, "Yes, this is college."

Prophecy of Class of 1933

Just having returned from China, where I have been for the past ten years, I asked Margaret Gathright to tell me what the members of the class of '33 were doing. To my surprise, she rattled off in double-quick time the news, as she called it, about each member of our class.

"My dear," she began eagerly, "Winston Cobb is making a huge success as Editor-in-chief of Ballyhoo! And Theodocia Beacham and Laurie Boush, I hear, are running an exclusive Beauty Shop on Park Avenue.

"Of course, you will be surprised to know that last night I heard Frances Coleman give an excellent lecture on the 'Ways and Habits of Fowls and Fishes.'

"And right now, let me tell you about Gazelle Ware's good luck. She has made millions on the life-time permanent waver that she invented accidentally while she was attempting suicide by electrocution!

"And Lois Rhodes, according to the Times Dispatch, is doing a nice piece of construction work between Dumbarton and Richmond. Yes, she is taking out all the curves!

"Did you ever think Mary Jess Richmond would make a star comedian? Well, she has! The children must go to the movies every time she appears.

"I was at Farmville last Founder's Day, and I saw more people: Dot Bloomfield, Imogene West, and Mildred Lancaster! They have a darling Chop Suey Shop on Third Street. Frances Ratcliffe and I had lunch there.

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1933

Frances is teaching natural dancing at S. T. C. She told me that Custis Burwell is now the 'lone hermit of Floyd County'—a result, I presume, of her final K. A. love affair. Ann Pritchard, she said, is the Blondie of the 'Farmville Follies.' Oh yes, I did run into Jenilee Knight, also. My dear, she is not only president of the 'Greek Drama Club,' but she is president, also, of the 'Woman's Missionary Society of Farmville.' I never thought she'd turn out that way when she was a Freshman. Did you?

"Jenilee said that Kathryn Royster has the Boy Scout organization really on its feet again, and that Helen Crute has made all of Farmville rich by discovering a silver mine near Farmville.

"We tune in every night at seven to get Dot Snedegar. She is the Gracie Allen of the radio world today. And we hear Rachel McDaniel, the Kate Smith of the Monotones, every Monday night at 12:30 o'clock.

"Of course, you know that Jennie Wheeler and Frances Potts are noted Metropolitan Opera Singers. And Margaret Bell is the xylophone player of the Boston Symphony Orchestra of which Hildegarde Ross is the director.

"Elizabeth Doyne is the president of Mop and Broom Co., Shagmore, Va.

"When I took the children to the Virginia State Fair last week, guess who was the tight rope walker? Well, it was none other than Mary

Winston. And Margaret Brown was a famous juggler of dumbbells at the carnival! I knew that Henrietta Taylor was head of the fancy work exhibits; so, I went to see her and the exhibits. To my surprise, Mutt Armstrong had won the first prize for the most beautifully crocheted counterpane—the American flag design.

"By the way, Jane, have you read Mae Downs' widespread biography, 'Private Life of Alice Moore'? And the day it came out Alice took the vows of a nun!

"Ruth Jordan, they say, is now the favorite dancer in 'Broadway Night Club,' owned by the multi-millionaire of our class, Margaret Jack. Margaret is graciously helping Mary Swift with her 'back to nature' movement: also Evelyn Williams, Lucille Ingram, Sara James, and Kate Porter in their effort to disprove Einstein's 'Theory of Relativity.' Some say she was responsible also for Miss Iler's election as President of the U. S. in 1940, but everybody knows now that was due to Clara Mistr's electioneering.

"I suppose you know, Jane, that Martha Sanders is running for Governor of Virginia on the Anti-Prohibition ticket.

"Josie Spencer was recently appointed Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. And she is making good, too!

"As Ambassador to England, Stuart Quaintance is a howling success. And Frances Grubb, I hear, is Director of Public Welfare in East End, New York.

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1933

"I am sure you will be surprised to know that Virginia Thornhill is a Private Detective in the U. S. Secret Service. Margaret Hix is representative in the Virginia Legislature from Wise County, Virginia, and our Lucille Crute is Justice of the Peace of Baskerville.

"Speaking along executive lines, they say that the Juvenile Court for Wayward Children is working wonders, with Mildred Shelton as the Clerk and Carrie DeShazo as Judge.

"Gay Athena Richardson is doing well in China. Let me write it down as I tell you about it, so that I can send it to the Alumnae Column of the 'Rotunda.' She is 'Plenipotentiary of Ostentatious Hallucinations of Collaborated Manipulations of Articulary Mandibles.'

"While on our honeymoon, whom should we see as bartenders at Agua Caliente, Mexico, but Hattie Gilliam and Nell Wampler? We found Anna Macon Ward running the Casino quite successfully at Catalina Island. But imagine my surprise when I saw Virginia Bryan caring for the gold fish in the 'Golden Gate Aquarium,' Golden Gate Park, San Francisco! When we got to New York, we found Doreen Smith conducting Sight-Seeing Tours through China Town. Doreen said that Connie Quarles was in 'Frisco and that she had just got her divorce from her third husband—maybe it was her fourth. On our way back, we ran into Elizabeth Morriss; she was thrilled with her work as keeper of wild animals in Yellowstone National Park.

"Yes," Margaret continued, "we are scattered to the four corners of the earth! Margaret Young is head of the Expedition of Mountain Climbers in Alaska, and Ann Wingo is winging her way to still further fame. It is ridiculous, but Virginia Marchant is an English Court Fool. Ruth Ford and Anna Knox stay on the go most of the time. Ruth is traveling salesman for Henry Ford, and Anna Knox, for the Anti-knock Gasoline Company.

"A few of the class of '33 became teachers! Helen Cover is Principal of the High School and Coach of Town Athletics of Jetersville. Lillian Womack still holds the position as Assistant Principal of Keysville. The high-salaried school teachers are, I hear: Marianna Robinson, Catherine Gannaway, Dorothy Wooton, of Columbia University; Jessie Watkins, Josephine Wooding, of Smith; Patsy Watkins, Cornelia Watts, and Agnes Smith, of Vassar. Some are teaching in Europe. Helen Walthall, Frances Armistead, Madge Blalock, Mildred Burfoot, Evelyn Pearcy, Sarah Pittman, Alice Rodgers, Lois Cox, Doris Lane, and Virginia Linthicum are the fortunate few. I have been told that Lois Cox is getting $5,000 a year in a private school in Naples!

"According to the N. E. A. Journal, Elizabeth Fitzgerald is National President of Childhood Education.

"Fay Fuller is, I am told, teacher of Expression in a school for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, and Mary Scales is the proprietor of the 'Virginia Balanced Institute.'

"Many of us have won many honors. Elizabeth Walthall is winner of the National Non-Speaking Endurance Contest. Woodruth Towler is a world known commercial advertiser. Harriet Moomaw is the Olympic Basketball Champion. Judging by present records, Mary Gregory will be the boxing champion of the world. And, my dear, Marguerite Massey has Joan Crawford completely in the dark!

"Last week I took a guest to the Jefferson. Lillian Woodley is the dietitian there, and she serves only foods that are guaranteed to make one slim!

"Duvahl Ridgway, you know, is making a success as hostess at White Sulphur.

"Last summer, I was on the steamer, 'Fate,' and Kathryn Waters was its captain! It was there I saw Mary Thomas Rawls, who is now proprietor of the 'Empty Rawls Tea Room,' Virginia Beach.

"To me the strangest thing about our class is that so few of us married! And we've been out of school ten years! Let's see—only Martha Gunter, Leah Jane Shaw, Janet Harris, Sarah Rowell, Evelyn Shaw, Cora Lee Briggs, and I married. Don't you think it is strange? But,—what price, marriage?

"I believe I've told you about everybody except Helen Galey, who is the 'Pall and Hall Undertaker' of Richmond.

"It will be simply grand if all the girls can be at Founder's Day next week, won't it? I've had a terrible time finding their addresses. But I do hope they will all come!"

—Jane Royall, '33

THE IMPRINT of PRIDE

BELL MADE ANNUALS are produced by skilled craftsmen to meet the most exacting requirements. But, measured by the standards of real service and satisfaction, they are, after all, the least expensive.
